A Family Perspective ~ February 11th – The 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

~ Family life is about decisions. The leper in today's gospel knew this when he said to Jesus. "If you will, you can make me clean." Jesus knew this when He said, "I do will it." Love is not an emotion. It is a decision to be with and for another person in "good times and bad," even when we don't feel like it.

The St. Michael Leadership Team would like to ask all parishioners to join in an effort to lift our First Communicants and Confirmation Students in prayer. Prayer stones will be available at each entrance of the church on Ash Wednesday. One student's name will be on each stone. Please pick one to take with you and place it where it will remind you to pray for the student every time you see the stone. Pictures of these students will be posted in the foyer at church, so you can put a face to the name you picked. Thank you for your commitment to the next generation of the Church!

Whatever you ask for in prayer with faith, you will receive. Matthew 21:22

This week's Ministry Spotlight ~

Prayer Group – "For where two or three are gathered in My Name, there am I in the midst of them." {Matthew 18:20}

Beginning August 21, 2017, Saint Michael parishioners – and others – have enjoyed the opportunity to gather together before the Tabernacle on Mondays at 7pm to pray with and for each other and our parish. We are very informal and welcoming of ANYONE who wishes to gather to petition and praise our Lord for any reason or no reason at all! We bring our sorrows and our joys, our pain and our gratitude. No commitment! Come when you feel the need, the desire, or when the Holy Spirit drags you through the door by your earlobe!

Deacon Rod now leads a walking prayer group through the parish's landscaping prior to the Prayer Group beginning at 6:30pm. Barb can be reached at 260-705-1638 or contact Deacon Rod Conkle at 419-542-6473.

My dear young people, you who are the Pro-Life Generation: God is calling you to greatness! Greatness does not come from power or wealth or from what St. Paul calls wisdom by human standards, that is, the dominant narrative of a dehumanized culture divorced from the vision of faith in the one, true God. From where does greatness come, according to St. Paul? It comes from being foolish enough to be chosen by God to shame the wise of this world, that is, those who perpetrate the destructive myths of the culture of death; by being weak enough to shame the strong, having the spiritual strength to speak truth to power and endure the ridicule, insults and rejection that will come with it; by being lowly, humble and even despised so that God can use you to bring down those who are high and mighty in the eyes of the world but who, by word and example, lead others down the path of self-destruction. Greatness comes from the humility, innocence and spiritual strength that enables one to become a lamb of sacrifice.

Let the teenager St. Agnes be your model, your guide and your inspiration. Imitate her virtues of purity, courage and joy in living her life for the love of Christ. Like her and St. Paul, let your only boast be our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave his all for us, for our sanctification and redemption, even though he did not stand to receive anything in return. May he be praised forever! Amen!

Excerpted from Archbishop Cordileone to the Pro- Life Generation in his homily at the Mass for the Walk for Life West Coast.
